

PRAISE FOR ROUTE 66: FACES AND PLACES

"Route 66 combines humor and well-researched facts to immerse young readers in the history of this famous roadway, while highlighting many of its more unusual attractions."

— Laurie Wallmark, author of Journey To The Stars

"The wheels in this book go round and round, through history and adventure! What a way to see the USA! I loved reading this freewheeling frolic across the country, learning something new with every stop. Extraordinary people, amazing landmarks, and fascinating history line the Main Street of America!"

—Dana Sullivan, author of My Red Velvet Cape

"A charming journey down Route 66 that shows every landmark holds a human story and a touch of wonder."

—Suma Subramaniam, author of Namaste Is A Greeting

"Buckle up for an epic road trip from Illinois to California, and get your kicks with the real history and fun facts to be found in every state along the route!"

—Laurie Ann Thompson, author of Emmanuel's Dream

CONTACT BETH BACON

St. Louis author Beth Bacon will read Route 66: Faces And Places and lead your students in this fun and educational lesson.

Email: BaconBeth29@gmail.com Phone: (425) 243-3776